Dear Ross,

We have completed the move into our new space and everybody at Gadge could not be more pleased. The configuration of the space gives us the open and functional layout that we were looking for. The upgrades are excellent and the windows even open. All at below market pricing!

I would like to thank you for your continued efforts to find the right space for us. You understood our difficult requirements and persisted in pursuing every opportunity as it became available. Your thorough market knowledge provided us with the necessary information to give us negotiating leverage. Your net-present-value spreadsheets were an excellent tool to analyze the various deals. Once the time remaining until our present lease expiration became short, you made sure that we were in our new space without a penalty. You even provided us with service providers such as lawyers, movers, furniture vendors, etc.

Throughout the process we always felt that you were working in our best interests. You were always completely honest and open with us which we appreciate. I would highly recommend you to any company looking for a new office location. We have used you in the past and will certainly use you again.

Best regards,

Gadge USA, Inc.
